

Blue Jackets

— BY BECK'S —

Join Beck's Hybrids and the Ohio FFA Foundation in providing FFA jackets for first-year members!

The symbolic blue corduroy jacket is an icon of an American tradition—instilling pride and responsibility in those who wear it.

To help make the member experience more inclusive, we need generous gifts from supporters like you! By joining Beck's, you will give a member the chance to experience the pride of wearing their own blue jacket.

Having an FFA jacket opens doors for students by allowing them to participate in competitions, conferences and events. Through these programs our members learn life skills that will serve them for years to come.

Please join Beck's in providing FFA jackets for students in your local area. FFA members may apply or community supporters or teachers may nominate a member to receive a jacket.

“

“This organization has given me a place that has felt so comfortable, yet pushed me beyond my limits.

FFA has given me a place to become who I am.”
